

Free Aviary Tool

www.Aviary.com > Create > Image Editor

- Access Levels tool
Image > Levels OR Image > Auto levels
- Access Clone Stamp tool
Click on the  icon, then on the  icon.
- Access Brightness/Contrast tool
Image > Brightness & Contrast
- Set up the tool to remove haze from a photo
  1. On the Layers menu, click the  icon to create a new layer.
  2. On the 'blend mode' dropdown menu, select 'multiply'.
  3. Make sure the foreground color is white:
  4. Click the fill icon, , then click on the image.
  5. Select the  icon.
  6. Click the arrow to make the foreground color black.
  7. Set the Alpha to between 4 and 13.
  8. Set the Hardness to 25.

www.Aviary.com > Create > Effects Editor

- Access the Color Correction tool
  1. Click on Effects.
  2. Drag Color Manipulator into the working area
  3. Adjust the Hue slider as needed.

Photoshop

- Access Levels tool
Image > Adjustments > Levels... OR Ctrl + L
- Access Brightness/Contrast tool
Image > Adjustments > Brightness/Contrast...
- Access Color Correction tools
Image > Auto Tone OR
Image > Auto Color OR
Image > Adjustments > Color Balance... OR Image > Adjustmenst > Variations...
- Access Healing Brush tool
Click on the  icon.
- Access Spot Healing Brush tool
Right-click on the  icon, then click on the  icon.
- Access Clone Stamp tool
Click on the  icon.
- Set up the tool to remove haze from a photo
  1. On the Layers menu, click the  icon to create a new layer.
  2. On the blending mode dropdown menu  Select 'Color Burn'.
  3. Make sure the foreground color is white:
  4. Click the fill icon, , then click on the image.
  5. Select the  icon.
  6. Click the arrow to make the foreground color black.
  7. Set the Opacity to between 4 and 13%.
  8. Set the Hardness to 25% in the Brush Preset dropdown menu.

